There is a raise-hand feature on the Zoom meeting page that allows you to raise your hand to make public comment. The moderator or Chairman can see your hand raised and the microphone will be unmuted so that you can make comments. If you do not have a microphone on your computer and you wish to make comments, you will have to call into the meeting using the phone number information above.
- If you call in by phone to comment, you can press *9, which will be the same as the raise-hand feature. When the Chairman calls on you, your phone will be unmuted, and you can make your comments.
- You must identify yourself and time limits are still in place (3 minutes per person)
